FORWARD STEPS WILL BE TAKEN

Along Health And Educational Lines.

Guilford Will Ask For Law Permitting Commissioners To Employ Superintendent of Health, Commissioner of Agriculture and Supervisor of Home Economics; These To Devote Entire Time to Their Work.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the County Commissioners, the County Board of Education and the Educational Committee from the Guilford Farmers' Union yesterday afternoon in the court house resolutions were unanimously adopted asking that the Legislature pass a law enabling the county to have a superintendent of health, a commissioner of agriculture and a superintendent of domestic science, each of these officials to devote their entire time to their respective lines of work.

At a previous meeting a committee had been appointed to investigate the matter and make recommendations along these lines. The report of the committee was unanimously adopted, being as follows:

"The committee, consisting of Messrs. Chas. H. Ireland, W. C. Boren, and J. I. Foust, appointed to make a report about the advisability of employing a superintendent of health to give all of his time to the work in Guilford county, a commissioner of agriculture, and a supervisor of home economics to give their time to the high schools during the session and to general work in the county at all other times, make the following recommendations:

"First—The committee is unanimously of the opinion that the three lines of work indicated above should be undertaken by the County Board of Education and County Commissioners if in the wisdom of these two boards it is possible to provide funds without injury to the other interests of the county.

"Second—That a committee be appointed to secure aid, if possible, from the Peabody board, and the Rockefeller Foundation, and Agricultural Department at Washington to aid in defraying the expenses of the work.

"Third—That a committee be appointed to secure proper legislation so that the work may be undertaken, if, in the wisdom of the Board of County Commissioners, and the County Board of Education, proper funds can be made available.

"Respectfully submitted, Chas. H. Ireland, W. C. Boren, J. I. Foust."

Chas. H. Ireland, J. I. Foust and J. A. Davidson were appointed to call upon the proper authorities in Washington, and J. C. Kennett, J. A. Davidson and Chas. H. Ireland were appointed to look after these interests before the General Assembly.

The last named committee will draft a law and the same will be passed upon at an adjourned meeting of the three bodies to be held next Saturday, after which the proposed law will be forwarded to Raleigh and the Guilford representatives will be asked to see that it is enacted. This does not mean necessarily that all three offices will be filled at once, but it is evident that in the near future the demand will be such that it will become necessary and in asking for such a law Guilford is only setting the pace for other progressive counties in the state.

The people all over the county are being aroused to the necessity of having their premises in a more sanitary condition and in educating their children as to the manner in which disease can be largely measure be prevented.

As to the value of a commissioner of agriculture there is no need for comment. In all sections of the county the farmers are aroused to the necessity of adopting improved methods of farming and many are already profiting by their use. The prime object, however, would be to have agriculture practiced by the children, under the instruction of a man well versed along agricultural lines.

Heretofore there has been a tendency to teach the boy how to farm and allow the girl to "catch on" to the art of domestic science as she can of her own free will under the tutorage of her mother. This art has sadly been neglected in the school life and no attention is given to the all important theme of managing the household affairs so as to utilize the many things that are thrown away as useless or of using to the greatest profit

BOND ISSUE FOR ERECTION OF ADMINISTRATION BUILDING

Secretary J. Bryan Grimes Draws Bill and Will Ask Legislature to Enact It.

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—A bill has been drawn for the legislature by Col. J. Bryan Grimes, secretary of state, providing for a one million dollar bond issue for the erection of an administration building on the north side of Capitol Square, bounded by Edenton and Jones and Salisbury and Wilmington streets, the structure to be fireproof, to occupy two half squares, divided by Halifax street—a twin building it might be termed. He estimates that such a building will afford ample room for the state departments for many years to come and will be a definite start in a system of buildings that should ultimately surround Capitol Square.

The charter of the Thompson-McCartney-West Company, of Hickory, is amended changing its name to the Thompson-West Co. W. C. Thompson is president.

Hon. M. L. Shipman, state commissioner of labor and printing and president of the North Carolina Press Association, has received notification that Hon. Locke Craig, of Asheville, has accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the Press Association at its mid-winter meeting in Winston-Salem January 24 and 25. Among other speakers will be Editor R. R. Clark, of the Statesville Landmark; Editor J. I. Caine, of the Asheville Citizen; Mrs. W. C. Hammer, wife of Editor Hammer, of the Asheville Courier; N. E. Pepper, editor of the Danbury Reporter and H. B. Varner of the Southern Good Roads Magazine and Lexington Dispatch. Mrs. Hammer's subject will be "Women in Journalism."

The regular two weeks criminal term of Wake Superior Court convened today with Judge Whidbee, of Greenville, presiding for the first time. Only eighteen prisoners are in jail awaiting trial. The most notable case is against Claude Sanders, colored, charged with the murder and burning of his wife and two step-children near Raleigh recently. A "kink" in the administration of the duties of Wake's coroner has prevented a complete investigation but the case can go to the grand jury and a bill returned as the prisoner is being held in jail anyway.

SAYS ESKIMOS HATE PEARY

Commander's Companion 14 Years Ago States Cook Is Loved.

Holland, Mich., Jan. 9.—A curious letter from the Arctic Circle, written by "Mene," one of the party of Eskimos whom Peary took to the Far North 14 years ago and who were used for scientific purposes in the preparation for Peary's dash for the Pole, has been received by Royal A. Stanton, of Cobleskill, New York.

Mr. Stanton, now a student in the Western Theological Seminary here, formed an acquaintance with "Mene" while the two were in New York and they became intimate friends. "Mene" was the only one of the Peary party of Eskimos who escaped death 14 years ago and accompanied Peary on his 1909 journey.

The letter was sent from Kjobenhoan and is dated September 2, 1910. In regard to the Cook-Peary controversy, "Mene" says in part:

"I know you will expect something about Cook. Well, Rob, I have gone to the bottom of the matter and nobody up here believes that Peary got much further than when he left his party. His name up here is hated for his cruelty. Cook made a great trip North. He has nothing in the way of proofs here that I can find. I believe that he went as far as anyone, but the Pole is yet to be found. Cook is loved by all, and every Eskimo speaks well of him and hopes that he had the honors over Peary. Has he? I will know all soon and will let you know.

"Come up here and I will show you how to find the North Pole. I will make you king. Then if you want me, I will go back to New York with you. I will wait for you here, but come before I am frozen in the igloo with the crowshead pointing west."

THE STAMPS NOW IN READINESS READY FOR SALE FOR CONVENTION

Will Benefit Playground Association.

Members of This Organization Will Begin Active Campaign To Sell Present Issue—All Who Desire to Join Asked to Notify Member of Executive Committee—Five Classes of Membership.

The Greensboro Playground and Kindergarten Association held an important meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. E. Sternberger.

The object of the meeting was primarily to decide upon ways and means for the distribution of the playground stamps, which it was hoped and expected to have had on sale in time for the Christmas packages. Owing to the increased demand for the Dennison seals, however, and the usual rush immediately preceding the holidays, they did not reach Greensboro until too late to profit by the Christmas spirit, which proved a harvest for the Red Cross seal and others of a purely commercial nature. To bring these stamps to the attention of the people of Greensboro and to make the using of them a matter of local pride, is the initial work of the committee, members of which will, during the next few weeks, devote some time and energy, to this patriotic service. If the present issue of stamps is disposed of the association will realize on this item alone the neat little sum of nine hundred and fifty dollars, and this is worth working for. The stamp is very artistic in design—one of the prettiest gotten out by the well known stamp house from which it is issued, and as an advertisement for Greensboro is worth many times what it costs. Every property owner, business man and resident of the city should see to it that letters going to their friends and customers bear this local seal, thus proclaiming to the world that it comes out of a town that keeps abreast with the times and is not afraid to grapple with live issues. The stamp sells for two cents, and every time one is used it means two cents towards the purchase and equipment of public playgrounds for Greensboro.

The play ground stamps, as a means of raising revenue, is not an experiment. It has been tried in a number of places and proven very successful. Philadelphia raised in this way in one week over twelve thousand dollars, and while the recent census report reminds us that Greensboro is not Philadelphia, in proportion to its population it should respond quite as liberally.

Among the numerous interesting communications read by the secretary was a letter from the secretary of state remitting the fee for the charter, explaining that, this being a charitable organization it was not subject to taxation. This came as a pleasant surprise, meaning that the association had in its treasury thirty-six dollars it had not counted on.

Until the organization had taken definite shape, it was agreed by the charter members that no soliciting for new members would be done. Now, however, that it is well launched with prospects of fair winds and smooth sailing, those who desire to join this most worthy and public-spirited movement are cordially invited to do so, and are asked to make known their wishes either to some member of the executive committee or advisory board. The memberships are of five classes, as follows:

Athletic members—Children.

Regular members—Enrolled members of the association who are in regular attendance upon its meetings, paying initiation fee of $3 and annual dues of $1.00.

Honorary members—Those paying $10 per year.

Sustaining members—Those paying $50 per year or life members.

Patrons—Those connected in some distinguished way with the cause.

The executive committee is composed of the following: Mrs. E. Sternberger, president; Mrs. R. C. Hood, president; Mrs. A. B. Kimball, treasurer; Miss Meta Eloise Beall, secretary.

The advisory board: Rev. Melton Clark, chairman; Messrs. Caesar Cone, R. G. Vaughn, E. Sternberger, A. B. Kimball, E. J. Justice, J. A. Odell, J. W. Fry, A. M. Seales, R. C. Hood, Miss Mary Petty and Mrs. Mamie B. Crawford.

The Final Details Worked Out.

Expected That Large Number of Laymen Will Attend the Sessions—Attention of Merchants Called To Resolution Asking That Clerks Be Allowed to Attend—Reports of Several Missionary Committees Should Be Sent In.

The final details for the anniversary services of the Laymen's Missionary Convention, in commemoration of the great convention held in this city last January, have been worked out and everything is in readiness for the occasion, which promises to be one of far reaching results. On Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Grace M. P. church was held an enthusiastic meeting of the missionary committees of the several churches and interested laymen. The feature of the meeting was an able address on "The Standard Missionary Church," by Rev. Melton Clark, the speaker laying emphasis on the part the laymen should take in making every church a standard one along missionary lines. The meeting was a preliminary for the anniversary services.

The program as printed in Sunday's Telegram will be carried out excepting a few minor changes. The speakers are men who have had much experience along missionary lines and the addresses will be of a most inspiring and helpful nature. Considerable interest is being taken by the hymns of the several churches and the attendance promises to be most gratifying. Admission cards have been distributed among the missionary committees of the several churches and each person who intends attending the services is urged to get a card from the committee of his church in order that a correct record of the attendance may be kept. Of course, any one can attend, who desires to do so, but by holding a card they can get a reserved seat. The ladies will also attend the services.

The sessions will be held in the First Presbyterian church and the ushers of that church will be on duty during each session to show the delegates to their respective seats.

Dr. J. H. Wheeler has the music in charge and a number of specially prepared selections will be rendered by quartets and the choir.

The chairmen of the missionary committees should make out their report at once and send it to Mr. Charles A. Hines as early as practical. All reports should be in by Friday at noon, as they will be read at that time. Friday night a statistical report will be shown on a large canvas, the report being compared with that of last year, showing the increase, etc.

The Telegram is asked to call to the attention of the merchants a resolution passed sometime ago, being a request that the merchants allow their clerks to attend the services. It is suggested that where several clerks are employed in a store that half be allowed to attend the morning service and the remainder the afternoon service. In this way all can take part and the merchants will be inconvenienced but little on account of lack of help.

Invitations to attend have been extended the laymen of other cities and it is expected that a large number will be here from Winston, High Point, Charlotte, Durham, Raleigh and other places.

Under authority of resolutions passed by the co-operative committee of the Laymen's Missionary Movement at its meeting held at Grace Methodist Protestant church on Sunday afternoon, the chairman of the Laymen's Missionary Movement appointed the following committees:

Committee on nominations—A. Wayland Cook, Esq., chairman; Rev. T. J. Ogburn, Rev. Melton Clark.

The duty of this committee is to nominate an executive committee for the coming year, and this report is to be made at one of the meetings of the Anniversary convention, either on Thursday or Friday as may be decided.

Committee on resolutions—Mr. O. C. Wyson, chairman; Prof. R. A. Merritt, Judge N. L. Eare.

This committee is to draft and present resolutions declaring the policy of the Laymen's Missionary Movement for the coming year.

OPPOSITION TO THE NEW COUNTY

County Commissioners, Board of Education and Guilford Agricultural Association Join Movement to Kill Proposition.

At the joint meeting of the County Commissioners and the Board of Education yesterday resolutions were adopted, opposing the new county movement and instructing Guilford's representatives in the General Assembly to fight the bill. A committee was appointed also to draft suitable resolutions and send them to the senator and representatives from Guilford. Those on the committee are J. A. Davidson, T. R. Foust, J. C. Kennett, W. C. Boren, J. A. Rankin, W. T. Whitsett and C. H. Ireland. W. G. Bradshaw was the only member absent.

This action was taken at the request of the committee from the Bar association and the two committees will meet Saturday for the purpose of drafting the resolutions, and insert therein such figures regarding the financial side of the proposition, the sentiment of the people both inside and outside the proposed county, etc., as are deemed best.

The executive committee of the Guilford Agricultural Association also passed resolutions protesting against the measure, the resolutions being given in another column.

NEW ROOM OCCUPIED.

Philathea of Grace M. P. Church Held Interesting Service Sunday Morning.

Last Sunday morning, the Philathea Class of Grace Methodist Protestant church occupied its new Sunday school room for the first time. The occasion was celebrated by a special service, consisting of appropriate responsive readings; greetings from the president of the class, Miss Annie Louise Wills, the teacher; Mr. J. Norman Wills, the superintendent; Mr. T. A. Hunter, the pastor, Rev. T. J. Ogburn, and an interesting address by Prof. W. C. Jackson. Other classes, including the Baraca class, were present by invitation, and participated in the exercises.

The new class room adjoins the church on the west, and is connected with it by a wide corridor. It is finished in mission oak, with rough, plastered walls and oak floor. A broad hearth and open grate give it an air of cheer and home-likeness, and the class which is to occupy it is delighted with its new quarters. The room has been erected as a memorial to Mrs. R. H. Wills and Miss Bettie Norman by the Wills brothers.

The Philathea class of Grace church is composed of young women from the Normal College. It was founded in the fall of 1893, becoming an organized class in 1907 and a Philathea class in the spring of 1909. The present officers are Miss Annie Louise Wills, president; Miss Mary Porter, vice president; Miss Verta Idol, secretary and treasurer; Miss Lynette Swain, assistant secretary and treasurer; Mr. J. Norman Wills, teacher, and Miss Ethel Lewis Harris, assistant teacher.

BURNED TO DEATH

Mrs. Halie Winfree Meets Horrible Fate At Summerfield.

Mrs. Halie Winfree, of Summerfield, met with a most horrible death Sunday morning when seated by an open fire place at home, she, in some manner unaccounted for, caught fire and burned to death. She was 83 years of age, and no one was in the room at the time. It is thought live coals popped out upon her clothing and that owing to her more or less helpless condition, she was unable to extinguish the blaze which developed.

She leaves three sons, Messrs. Buck, Huston and Frank Winfree.

The funeral will be conducted today at one o'clock at the Baptist church, Summerfield, and the interment will be in the cemetery at that place.

Civic Department Meets Today.

The Civic department of the Woman's Club will hold its regular monthly meeting this morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Carnegie library. Every member is urged to attend.

A Growing Concern.

The Gate City Building & Loan Association has closed its 15th series with 600 shares of stock sold—the largest series issued yet and giving the association over 1800 shares now in force. The Gate City has matured and paid off two series during the past year and still makes a net gain of more than 600 shares. The books will be opened for the 16th series today at the office of T. J. Murphy, Secretary-Treasurer, 106 E. Market street.

WILL CONTINUE WORK THIS YEAR

Agricultural Association so Decides.

Will Ask Co-operation of Farmers' Union In Order That Scope of Work This Year May Be Materially Broadened—Old Officers Re-Elected—Resolutions Opposing New County Are Adopted.

The executive committee of the Guilford County Agricultural Association met yesterday morning at 11 o'clock and after going over the treasurer's books for the past year decided unanimously to continue the work for the coming year. The work was discussed at length, but no definite plans were made. A committee was appointed to go before the monthly meeting of the Farmers' Union next Saturday and ask the co-operation of that body in the work of furthering the agricultural interests of the county. The old officers of the association were re-elected. Mr. J. A. Davidson is president and Prof. T. R. Foust, secretary.

While, as stated above, nothing definite was decided upon by the association it is believed that a greater work than that of the past year will be undertaken, provided, of course, the co-operation of the farmers is secured. Last year the association conducted in a most successful manner the Guilford Boys' Corn Growing Contest, giving away nearly $500 in prizes. The contestants gave three pecks of corn each and this sold as high as $7.66 per bushel. Great interest was taken by the boys and even if there were no contests this year the results of last year's event would be felt for years. However, it is to be hoped that larger prizes and more of them can be provided this year. It is also hoped that every farmer boy in the county between the age limit will enter the contest, if it is arranged for. There is no doubt but that last year's contest caused an increase of several thousand bushels in Guilford's corn crop, for while the contest was between the boys many a farmer put his shoulder to the wheel with more than ordinary determination in order that his little boy might not outclass him as a corn grower and farmer.

The executive committee also placed itself on record as opposed to the formation of a new county by taking a portion of Guilford. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

"Whereas the last census shows that Guilford county has made a larger increase in population than any other county in the state; and whereas the geographical shape of the county is now ideal; and whereas we believe that the time has come for our county to do large things along the lines of education, agriculture, good roads, improved health conditions, etc., therefore be it resolved: 1. That this association believes it is to the best interests of all concerned that no part be taken away from our county in the formation of a new county. 2. That J. C. Kennett, J. A. Hoskins, and J. A. Frazier be named as a committee to transmit this communication to our senator and representatives in the Legislature."

DEATH OF MRS. FORSYTH

Passed Away Sunday Night At Her Home East of the City.

Mrs. Elizabeth Forsyth, wife of Mr. William Forsyth, died Sunday night at 8:30 o'clock at her home four miles east of the city on the McConnell road. Saturday, however, she suffered a sudden and severe relapse and she sank steadily until death claimed her Sunday night.

Mrs. Forsyth was 76 years of age. She is survived by her husband, Mr. William Forsyth and the following children: A. C. Forsyth and William Forsyth, of Greensboro, David Forsyth, Mrs. William Fogleman and Mrs. William Gorrell, of the county.

The funeral will take place at 11 o'clock this morning at Alamance Presbyterian church of which the deceased was a member.

NO RIVAL AGAINST TAFT.

Probability of Renomination Emphasized By Political Talk in Washington.

Ernest G. Walker, in the Boston Herald. It seems to the Republican President-makers at Washington as though the holiday discussions have quite effectively forecast the verdict of the next national convention. There has been a full in popular interest with reference to other affairs, which have been improved to emphasize the tendency toward President Taft. While his renomination was taken for granted some weeks ago, the political talk brought here from the States and the views which have been disseminated from Washington go far to confirm such a prospect.

The holiday emphasis upon the Presidential situation is gratifying to Mr. Taft's friends for several reasons. One of them is that it has developed no rival booms or boomers. There is no disposition, apparently, to bring any other candidates to the fore. The Cummins Presidential boom which was vigorously heralded out of the West in November, has not yet materialized among the politicians sojourning in Washington. It was promised that Senator Cummins would virtually maintain headquarters by the Potomac during the Congressional months. Nothing like this has been done, and, in a Presidential way, the Senator has been quiescent. The stanch Iowa stalwarts ridicule the Senator's aspirations. His inauspicious brethren from adjacent States have assured an attitude of diffidence. If they are to support a Western candidate, it is decidedly a matter of the future, and has not been determined upon yet. Inaugural endorsement of the President is indeed, among the probabilities. It may not be an enthusiastic endorsement, but sufficiently cordial to make for campaign harmony.

Saves Two Lives. "Neither my sister nor myself might be living today, if it had not been for Dr. King's New Discovery," writes A. R. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. She was very weak and had night sweats but your wonderful medicine completely cured us both. It's the best I ever used or heard of." WORLD ALMANAC HAS IT ALL.

In New Volume for 1911 Every New Fact Has Been Added.

All the phenomenal growth and development that have marked the progress of events throughout the world in 1910 are reflected and recorded in The World Almanac for 1911. To enumerate its new features would be to enumerate everything new and important that has taken place in the last year. Its great mass of statistical information on every subject in which anyone would be likely to be interested has been revised and brought down to the last moment of the closing year, and so many new facts and figures have been added that apparently no information of value or importance has been omitted, while for accuracy The World Almanac has never been excelled.

The completeness with which the subjects are treated is shown by the fact that fifteen pages are devoted to detailed facts concerning the new "Science of Aviation." "The High Cost of Living" is another subject treated at length in detail.

All the important laws of Congress and of State Legislatures are clearly summarized. The progress of science, art, government, religion, education, labor, industry, commerce, finance, navigation, exploration and a thousand or more other subjects are set forth concisely, making The World Almanac for 1911 a complete reference library in one volume.

It is the one reference volume which may be accurately described by paraphrasing Lincoln's famous sentence concerning a people's government: It is a book of facts, of, for and by The World.

ARTISTS' EMBLEMS.

In Whistler's Butterfly Could Be Found the Monogram J. W.

The mystic emblem or device of a sort of Whistlerized butterfly was adopted in the sixties by the eccentric genius James Abbott Whistler, who changed his name later to James McNeill Whistler.

Close study will reveal that this peculiar scroll is really a monogram of J. W. The earliest of the etchings to bear the butterfly is "Chelsea Wharf" (1863), but many paintings and etchings after that date are signed "Whistler."

Artists have sometimes signed their pictures in some distinct form instead of their names. It generally was done when the name might suggest some emblem or symbol.

Thus Hieronymus Cock demarked two fighting cocks on his panels; Marto Albertinelli signed a cross with two interlaced rings, referring to the sacerdotal duties to which at one time of his life he devoted himself; Martin Rota, a wheel; Pieter de Ryng, a ring with a diamond; Giovanni Dossi, a bone; Del Mazo Martinez, a hammer; Lionello Spada, a sword.

Sometimes caprice dictated the selection, as when Jacopo de Barberi used the caduceus, or Mercury rod; Hendrik de Bles an owl, Lucas Cranach a crowned serpent, Cornelius Engelbrecht a peculiar device resembling a weather vane and Hans Holbein a skull.

Solves a Deep Mystery.

"I want to thank you from the bottom of my heart," wrote C. B. Rader, of Lewisburg, W. Va., "for the wonderful double benefit I got from Electric Bitters, in curing me of both a severe case of stomach trouble and of rheumatism, from which I had been an almost helpless sufferer for ten years. It suited my case as though made just for me." For dyspepsia, indigestion, jaundice and to rid the system of kidney poisons that cause rheumatism, Electric Bitters has no equal. Try them. Every bottle is guaranteed to satisfy. Only 50c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Seeking Advice.

"I want to ask you for a bit of advice," said the insinuating man. "What is it?"

"I want you to put yourself in my place and me in yours, and tell me how you would go about it if you wanted to borrow ten dollars from me."—Washington Star.

BATTLES WITH LOCUSTS.

In 1780 an Army Was Arrayed Against the Ravaging Pests.

Since the days of the pharaohs the locust has been an unmitigated plague. Pliny relates that in many places in Greece a law obliged the inhabitants to wage war against the insects three times a year—i. e., in their various states of egg, larvae and adult.

In 1749 locusts stopped the army of Charles XII., king of Sweden, as it was retreating from Bessarabia after its defeat at Poltava. The king at first imagined that he was being assailed by a terrific hailstorm.

In Transylvania in 1780 the ravages of the locusts assumed such disastrous proportions that the army had actually to be called out to deal with the pests, and whole regiments of soldiers were employed gathering them up and putting them into sacks.

A weird, uncanny looking customer is the locust. The general color scheme of his body is a kind of indefinite green, relieved by pink legs and wings of a whitish color. Two huge, blank, unmeaning eyes give an expression of utter imbecility to the insect's countenance.

To atone in a measure for their destructive proclivities the locusts are edible. The Arabs are particularly fond of them. Camels, to which they are given after being dried and roasted between two layers of ashes, look upon locusts as great delicacies.

The flavor resembles that of crabs, and in Bagdad they are consumed so extensively as to affect the price of meat.—Stray Stories.

FOLEY'S KIDNEY PILLS

Are tonic in action, quick in results. A special medicine for all kidney and bladder disorders. Mary C. Abbott, Wolfeboro, N. H., says: "I was afflicted with a bad case of rheumatism, due to uric acid that my kidneys failed to clear out of my blood. I was so lame in my feet, joints, and back that it was agony for me to step. I used Foley's Kidney Pills for three days when I was able to get up and move about and the pains were all gone. This great change in condition I owe to Foley's Kidney Pills and recommend them to anyone suffering as I have." Howard Gardner.

AGE NO BAR.

Everybody in Greensboro is Eligible. Old people stooped with suffering. Middle age, courageously fighting. Youth protesting impatiently. Children, unable to explain. All in misery from their kidneys. Only a little backache first. Comes when you catch a cold. Or when you strain the back. Many complications follow. Urinary disorders, diabetes. Bright's disease.

Doan's Kidney Pills cure backache. Cure every form of kidney ills. Mrs. A. Haggie, 424 Maple street, Winston-Salem, N. C., says: "My son was troubled for some time by pains in his back and kidneys and there was also a most annoying weakness of the kidneys in evidence. Though I tried remedies after remedy, no benefit was obtained. Seeing Doan's Kidney Pills advertised, I procured a box and gave them to my son as directed. They brought relief and soon disposed of his troubles. I am a firm believer in the merits of Doan's Kidney Pills and shall recommend them whenever an opportunity occurs."

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology has Proved that Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived, the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair, and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

SEEING THE ELEPHANT

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1910, by Associated Literary Press.

Deacon Silas Goodhue was a good man. You may say that all deacons are good men, and such is the case up to a certain point.

The good deacon lived two miles from the village and his church, but every Sunday he was there. Some deacons wouldn't have set out for that drive in a blizzard or a thunderstorm, but Deacon Goodhue never missed a Sunday.

On this particular occasion, however, much to his sorrow, the deacon found himself interested in the circus bills posted up on the highway barns. He resented his interest. He tried to chase it away. He wrestled with it as he hoed corn. He could have got the better of it but for one thing. The coming circus had on exhibition an African elephant weighing two tons. He had lost an eye and one tusk, he had killed five keepers, and it was expected he would kill the sixth within a month. There was something in this statement to appeal and interest.

"What I want," he said, "is to see that elephant. I want to look him over for about half an hour, and then I shall be willing to drive back home." "Brother Goodhue," replied the minister, "as I understand it, there are two tents. One is for the menagerie and the other for the circus."

"Yes, that's so."
"One ticket admits to both."
"It does."

"And the menagerie is the first tent you enter."
"I guess so."
"Well, the case seems to be right here. Can you enter the first tent and gaze on the elephant and not long to enter the second, where the circus is? It is surely no sin to gaze on an elephant, but when it comes to a circus performance, deacon, that is different, you know. You must fight this out alone. You are a strong man, but the two ringed circus is an awful temptation."

He had a week to think it over. Sometimes he was strong in his self confidence, and again his knees wobbled. Why pay 50 cents to see the elephant alone when it would admit to all? Was it worth that sum to gaze on even an elephant that had killed five men? It was decision and indecision for a week, and then the minister inquired if his mind was made up.

"Not skakely," was the reply.
"You doubt your strength?"
"That's it. I do want to see the elephant, and I don't want to see them gals in spangles, and I'm sweating over it."

"Then wouldn't it be wiser to give up the idea?"
The deacon went home and wrestled another day and then decided not to go near the behemoth. The circus came, and his neighbors went, and a peddler came along the road and told him that it was the grandest aggregation on the face of the known world, and the words brought a lonely feeling.

The good man's reward was at hand, however. Just at sundown he heard a great yelling down the road, and he looked to see a great cloud of dust. A haystack on wheels was coming his way, pursued by men and dogs. The deacon was at the barnyard gate with a milk pail on his arm. As the haystack came nearer he murmured to himself:

"B'gosh, it's an elephant, and he's broke away from the circus! He's the very one I wanted to see, and now there won't be no temptation about it."

Yes, the two tonner had broken loose and was locking for summer board. He was hiking straight ahead when he caught sight of the deacon and the open gate and the cows in the barnyard. He swerved aside and butted in. Brother Goodhue did not understand the situation until two seconds too late. He was seized and thrown twenty feet high to come down on the wagon shed with a broken leg. Then the four cows were picked up and toyed with. They were tossed over into the road or slammed against the barn, and the deacon on the roof forgot his pain as he gazed. His wagon was smashed to bits and his haystack pulled apart, and the behemoth played ball with a plow or two.

Of course the circus men were after him all the time, but the two tonner was out for fun, and he didn't submit to bondage until he had had it. His last act was to burst through the fence and walk up to the kitchen of the farmhouse and pick up the well curd and the old oaken bucket and send them sky high among the limbs of a cherry tree. Then he gave in and was led away looking as innocent as a lamb. The circus proprietors agreed to pay all damages, but as a matter of fact not a cent was ever had from them. During his three months in bed Deacon Goodhue had many callers. Among them, as a matter of course, was his minister. As he sat down by the bedside he asked:

"Deacon, what do you figure up the damage to be?"

"Bout five hundred, I guess."
"Um. I wish I could pay it."
"Oh, no one expects such a thing."
"No, I can't pay it, but I'll tell you what I can do. I can advise you that when the next circus comes along you go to it. You not only go in and see the elephant, but the kangaroos, the camels, the giraffes and the hyenas, and then you get a front seat at the circus performance and stay until the last act is over."

Mr. W. A. Hildebrand, the editor and correspondent, insists that Marion Butler is the real head of the Republican party in this State. Democrats are willing to let it go at that.

Some of our exchanges are urging the Legislature not to put off the bulk of its work till the close of the session. There's probably too much human nature in the Legislature to take this advice. "Do it now" is a thing that only a small percentage of the population achieves. Because there are so few who "do it now" the proportion of successes in life to failures and semi-failures is noticeably small.

While you are talking of quality instead of quantity, how is it that Durham, one of the smallest counties in the State, contributes more to its support than such counties as Mecklenburg and Guilford that are twice as large and have twice her population?—Durham Herald.

That's easy. Durham county is the home of one or more trust magnates and of large holdings of a trust. It doesn't take much territory to afford room for the possession of a lot of trust-brewed money.

The Danville Commercial Association has secured a new train from Lawrenceville, says the Danville Register. The Greensboro Chamber of Commerce, the people along the line and the Legislature, all working together, ought to be able to induce the Southern to put on a new day train between Greensboro and Raleigh. This is the most congested part of the Greensboro-Goldsboro line. A new day train would relieve the congestion and at the same time develop more passenger business for the Southern. For people would travel more if the inducements were greater.

Editor Josephus Daniels continues to fly editorial distress signals over those resolutions of the Baptist State Convention against the proposed bond issue for the State institutions of learning. He has no quarrel with Baptists for individually opposing the bond issue but he cannot forgive the delegates who chanced to compose the convention at Hendersonville for expressing themselves as to the bond issue formally and collectively. He says the latter is a step in the direction of a union of church and State. The Baptists answer that, in maintaining the divorce of Church and State, it is not necessary to abridge the right of free speech. To our mind they have decidedly the better of the argument. The wisdom or unwisdom of the bond issue, it should be understood, is not under discussion at all. The whole controversy has resulted because of Editor Daniels' criticisms of the Baptists for adopting the Hendersonville resolutions; and, presumably, he would have criticized the convention with equal severity had the resolutions been the reverse of what they were.

The Democrats of Ohio are keeping right up with the procession. It and a number of other States in the last election became conspicuous as a result of choosing exceptionally clean and able Democrats for governor. It was feared that when it came time to elect a Senator they would have wearied in well doing. But not so. Ohio has chosen a man admirably suited to the place. He is Atlee Pomerene. The Baltimore Sun says:

The prophets of evil who predicted a bitter contest over the Senatorship which would disrupt the Democratic party in Ohio will be sadly disappointed. John R. McLean did not demand the place. Thomas L. Johnson made no circus-tent campaign for it. There was no need of calling on Foraker or consulting one Republican Insurgent.

The Democratic members of the Legislature got together in caucus and in two hours settled the whole matter. There were twelve candidates, but on the first ballot the choice of Governor Harmon, Atlee Pomerene, of Canton, was selected, receiving a majority over all. E. V. Hanly was backed by the old Democratic "machine," but received only ten votes. If this was the long-anticipated "test" of the comparative strength of Harmon and the "old guard," it shows very little is left of the old organization. Mr. Pomerene was elected Lieutenant-Governor on the Harmon ticket; he has never been a professional politician, and is regarded as clean, able and thoroughly progressive. He promises to be a great improvement over that negligible relic of the Hanna regime, Senator Charles Dick who long ago ceased to represent the people of Ohio.

SIX-YEAR-OLD CHILD ASSAULTED BY STRANGER

Enticed Into Golf House and Portion of Clothing Torn Off—Confronted by Child's Father.

People living in the vicinity of Fifth avenue were thrown into a state of excitement Sunday afternoon when it became known that an unknown man had enticed the little six-year-old daughter of a resident on that street into the golf house, just beyond the end of the street, and assaulted her. The little girl was frightened considerably and did not cry out. The man tore off a portion of the child's clothing, but made no further attempt at criminal assault.

The child's father, who is by the way, one of Greensboro's most respected citizens, soon missed her and went in search for her. He found her in company with this stranger and saw that something was wrong. He did not know the man, but was at once convinced that he had come there for no good purpose; indeed, he was so certain, after asking him repeatedly what he was doing there and getting the same answer, "nothing," and after hearing the little girl's accusation against him, that he (the father) told the man to consider himself under arrest. The man who, upon being questioned, gave his name as Brown, started on a run, whereupon the father of the child started in pursuit. Brown turned and told him if he followed he would get shot. The father thinking it unsafe to go further hurried to a phone and called the police, who came out as quickly as possible; but in the meantime, Brown had made his escape, going into the woods back of the ball park, eastward. Other persons, noticing the incident and seeing the fleeing man, made pursuit, but he was not caught.

Chief Neelley spent most of Sunday afternoon in an endeavor to get a line on him, searching all through the section into which he escaped, even as far as the A. & M. College, but so far, his efforts have been fruitless. The chief is, however, in possession of a full and accurate description of the fiend, and every effort possible is being made to locate him.

The person is evidently crazy and it is believed that he will soon be caught. Unless he is crazy he is nothing less than a human fiend and one with the boldest nature imaginable. He is a well dresser and by professing a strong friendship for children had no trouble in enticing the child to leave her play and go with him. Only a short while before he met the child on Fifth avenue he met several children on Church street and enticed one into a house that was being erected. A portion of her clothing was removed, but she stated that her little brother was in the street alone and she had to look after him. The stranger accommodatingly told her to go and bring him into the house also. She left and ran with full speed home and related the circumstances. A search was made at once, but the man had left.

That he is no stranger in Greensboro is evidenced by the fact that he went on Chestnut street and inquired as to the address of a gentleman living on that street. He then went to Fifth avenue and inquired as to the address of a gentleman living on that street also. In fact he was nearly opposite the house of the gentleman he inquired about when he met the little girl he assaulted. With the description given the police believe they will have no difficulty in capturing him.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all the other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

NEGRO HIGHWAYMAN CAUGHT IN WINSTON

Virgil Hunt Who Assaulted Woman Last Wednesday on Summit Avenue Near White Oak Found In Winston Dressed In Woman's Clothing—Brought To Greensboro Sunday Evening—Good Work by Officers in Spotting Him.

Virgil Hunt, the negro who on last Wednesday afternoon assaulted Mrs. Johnson on the highway near White Oak has been captured and landed in jail for safety. Sheriff Jones had sent out notifications and a description of the negro, and when he showed up in Winston, he was soon captured and placed behind the bars. He went to Winston "to cook," so he said. It was learned, however, that he was living there with a woman whom he claimed to be his wife, though it is now known that his wife lives here. He was living there in disguise. Officer Cofer, of Winston, knew him and went to the house where he was staying. Upon his first visit he found the negro absent but the next time he found him dressed in woman's apparel, sweeping, making beds, and assisting in other lines of work belonging peculiarly to the field of domestic science. He even wore one of these kinky coiffures—the most natural that have yet been devised. But Officer Cofer should be in the employ of Pinkerton or a member of that famous band of Sleuths of Scotland Yard. He caught sight of that darky's physiognomy and at once recognized him. To make himself doubly sure, he unceremoniously removed "her" wig. Then, "come along with me, Hunt." The ingenious officer sent "her" to Greensboro in "her" wig and gown, just as "she" was adorned when first apprehended. When Officer Crutchfield started up Elm street, the negro in this gorgeous attire attracted great crowds of hangers-on, loafers, negroes and some even belonging to a more respectable class, who could not resist the impulse to go with the throng. The curious crowd was augmented at every news-stand and other public place where Sunday night crowds "hang out," until the jail was reached and the gaudily plumed African bird placed safely in the county cage.

Hunt was attired in a dark frock, a polka dot waist, wearing his wig and about his head a scarf not very much unlike a Turkish turban. Officer Crutchfield took Hunt and Jim Stephens, whom Hunt implicated in the affair, to White Oak in his automobile and had them stand before Mrs. Johnson, the woman assaulted, for identification. She immediately pointed to Hunt and remarked, "That's the scoundrel, and if I had had a pistol the other day, he would not be where he is."

Hunt said that Jim Stephens was with him and was the man who knocked the woman down while he himself was in the woods, but Mrs. Johnson said not. However, both negroes are in jail and will be given a preliminary hearing before Justice Collins. When a negro gets into trouble, it is almost useless to go to any of his friends or relatives of color for information. They are always mum. Every effort was made here to locate Hunt, but to no purpose. His mother said he had gone to Danville, but she was only trying to save him. Another old negro woman known as Mother Sursey was questioned closely regarding his whereabouts, but she, too, was as tight as an oyster. It is thought, however, that it was at her house he got his togs, whereupon he proceeded to the station to await the departure of the Winston train.

Representative J. L. Stewart, of Montgomery, Passes Away—Assembly Adjourns Out of Respect of Deceased.

Raleigh, Jan. 9.—Nothing of importance was done by the legislature today, both branches adjourning out of respect for Rev. J. L. Stewart, of Montgomery, who died Sunday.

The House.

The House convened at 11 o'clock with Speaker Dowd in the chair. Prayer by Rev. L. F. Johnson, of the Christian church.

The speaker announced as Journal committee for the week Representatives Hosler, Bates and Cordell.

Speaker Dowd announced a number of the principal standing committees for the House, with the statement that he will complete these appointments later in the week. Following the reading of the committee appointments Speaker Dowd stated to the House that he had tried to include in his appointments on the judiciary committee all the lawyers who are members and on the committee on health all the doctors who are members. If any had been omitted he would add them.

Representative McGill was recognized and announced to the House the death of Representative J. L. Stewart, of Montgomery county, paying a high tribute to the deceased as a gallant Confederate soldier and an upright man. He introduced a resolution bearing upon this sad and unexpected death and pending its adoption Representative Woodson, of Cleveland; General J. S. Carr, of Durham, and Representative Marshall, of Surry, paid tribute. General Carr including an eloquent and touching tribute to the fast dwindling band of those who fought for the South.

The resolution provides that the committee officially notify the governor of the vacancy caused by the death of Mr. Stewart and that the House adjourn as a mark of respect for the deceased. Also that the flag on the capitol be kept at half mast during this day as a mark of sorrow.

Following the adoption of the resolution the House adjourned to 11 o'clock Tuesday.

Senate.

The Senate met at noon, prayer being offered by Rev. A. D. Wilcox, of Central Methodist church.

Senators Hicks, of Granville, and Graham, of Orange, were granted leaves of absence until Wednesday.

A message was read from the House announcing the death of Hon. John L. Stewart, representative from Montgomery county.

Senator Bassett, of Edgecombe, introduced the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted and the Senate stood adjourned until 11 o'clock tomorrow:

"Whereas, the Senate has heard with profound sorrow of the death of Hon. John L. Stewart, late representative from the county of Montgomery, therefore be it

"Resolved, That as a mark of respect to the memory of the deceased and in appreciation of his high character and patriotic public service the Senate do now adjourn.

"Resolved, That the clerk communicate this resolution to the House of Representatives and forward a copy of the same to the family of the deceased."

PHILIP AGAINST PHILIP.

How Senator Bailey Turned Senator Lodge's Argument Upon its Author. Washington Times.

"Which reminds me of a good one on Henry Cabot Lodge," remarked another member of the delegation. "Of course, we all know that the Senator is some historian. One day in the Senate he delivered a hot speech in which he eulogized Lincoln and denounced the men who urged the secession of Southern States.

"As soon as Lodge concluded Senator Bailey, of Texas, got up to reply. He denounced the Lodge argument, and even went so far as to indulge in some personal criticism. Then, with considerable care, he delivered an elaborate defense of the secession of States. Everyone expected that Lodge would reply to Bailey, but instead he walked over to Bailey's desk.

"Joe" said Lodge, "how did you know I wrote that stuff?"

"Oh," replied Bailey, "I came across it one day and made up my mind it would be useful. I committed it to memory and today you gave me a chance to spring it. I was disappointed because you did not answer me. Had you done so I was prepared to inform the Senate that my defense of the secession of States was almost word for word a defense by Henry Cabot Lodge of his illustrious ancestor, George Cabot, whose secession theories at the Hartford convention made him an undesirable citizen in some quarters."

"Writing history is a dangerous occupation for a man in public life," remarked Lodge, "and I thank you for not giving me away."

Take Foley's Honey and Tar. It gives quick relief and expels the cold from your system. It contains no opiates, is safe and sure. Howard Gardner.

Value of Open-Air Schools.

Boston Transcript.

The coming generation, in our cities at least, is likely to have a more lively appreciation of the value of fresh air than the one that has preceded. Within the last three years nearly 50 cities have established open-air schools for the benefit of tuberculosis school children. Providence began it, and other municipalities have followed on, though not all have developed the idea to the same extent. Boston, for instance, might profitably carry it further than she has. Pawtucket, R. I., not only has a fine open-air school, but proposes to have at least one open-air room in every school building in the city, where delicate children can receive the tonic influences which nature so bountifully provides.

A RELIABLE COUGH MEDICINE

Is a valuable friend. Foley's Honey and Tar fulfils this condition exactly. Mrs. Charles Kline, N. 8th St., Easton, Pa., states: "Several members of my family have been cured of bad coughs and colds by the use of Foley's Honey and Tar and I am never without a bottle in the house. It soothes and relieves the irritation in the throat and loosens up the cold. I have always found it a reliable cough cure." Howard Gardner.

"David Lloyd George," said the author from Wales, "is a very witty speaker. I've heard him many a time in Carnarvon. Speaking in Welsh, he once ridiculed in Carnarvon the house of lords. He said the average peer thought so much of himself at family prayers he always made one well known passage run: "Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of lords forever."—London Globe.

His Wish.

"Life is something of a game after all," said the cynical person. "Perhaps," replied Mr. Meekton, "but I wish Henrietta wouldn't regard it as bridge, with me forever playing opposite as dummy."—Washington Star.

Old Soldier Tortured.

"For years I suffered unpeppable torture from indigestion, constipation and liver trouble," wrote A. K. Smith, a war veteran at Erie, Pa., "but Dr. King's New Life Pills fixed me all right. They are simply great." Try them for any stomach, liver or kidney trouble. Only 25c. at Fariss-Klutznick Drug Co.

Easy.

"I'm in a very difficult position." "What's the trouble?" "Well, in a moment of enthusiasm I asked a certain girl to be my wife and she accepted me. Now I find that I don't love her, and I don't know how I'm going to get out of it." "That's easy enough. Just get her to sit down with you some evening and help you to figure out how well you will be able to live on your salary."—Chicago Record-Herald.

Home protection is true wisdom. Vick's Ointment and Painsalve ought to be in every home for its quick relief and prevention of two dangerous diseases and the more common ailments such as Colds, Catarrh, Burns and Chaps.

HIS GREAT IDEA.

The Tin Plated Tomato and the Moral That Goes With It.

A good theory that won't work isn't half as good as a poor one that will. Twenty years ago a young man just out of college had a great idea. He was going to tin plate tomatoes. There was to be no more troublesome paring and cooking and canning to preserve tomatoes throughout winters. It would be necessary only to drop a nice ripe tomato into his tinning solution and it would come out coated with tin and would keep for twenty years. In fact, there wasn't any reason why it should not keep forever! The young inventor figured it would cost him 50 cents a gallon to make this tinning solution. It surely would sell for $2 a gallon. Every one eats tomatoes—that is, nearly every one. Everybody would eat them if they could always have a nice tin plated tomato lying around. He ought to sell a million gallons a year. That would be a profit of a million and a half dollars. Well, no tin plated tomatoes are on the market yet, and the man who invented them is still making only $15 a week.

The moral of this is that whenever you hear of a great idea that is going to reform or uplift the world make sure that it is not of the tin plated tomato brand.—Chicago Tribune.

Cheap Family History.

Even in political defeat there are compensations. A Washington heights man who aspired to office tells of one that he discovered.

"Must have cost you a pile of money to run, didn't it?" a friend asked.

"About $1,000, but still I came out $400 ahead."

"How?" said the friend.

"On genealogical research. My wife has a society bee in her bonnet and had about agreed to pay a man $2,000 to look up my family history, but when I became a candidate my opponents did that for me and saved us the money."—New York Times.

Eight Lions.

There are eight lions known the world over—the lion of St. Mark's in Venice, the four lions at the base of the Nelson monument in Trafalgar square, the lion of Waterloo, the lion of Lucerne and the lion of Chaeronea. Ruskin in his "Stones of Venice" said that the lion of St. Mark's was the one lion the force expression of which no artist had ever been able to reproduce. This beast of bronze has the distinction also of wearing a pair of wings.—London Graphic.

Why He Left.

Long—Why did you leave the place where you formerly boarded?

Short—Because the landlady had too much curiosity.

Long—In what direction?

Short—Oh, she was continuously asking me when I was going to pay my board bill.—Chicago News.

The Next Question.

"Dora's invited to a swell party," said the mother.

"How much will the gown cost?" asked the father, who knew what was coming.—Detroit Free Press.

Not a Freshman.

Caller—I didn't know your son was at college. Is this his freshman year?

Mrs. Bunderby—Oh, no, indeed! He's a sycamore.—Boston Transcript.

His Inspiration.
"Of what were you thinking when you wrote this beautiful poem?" "Of a winter overcoat," answered the bard.—Washington Herald.

IRON IN THE BLOOD

is an essential element to health. When it is insufficient or lacking there is a dearth of red blood corpuscles, which causes anaemia and a run-down condition of the entire system, with consequent bodily weakness.

In order to restore the blood to a healthy condition, iron must be supplied in an easily assimilated form. We guarantee this may be done by Vinol, our delicious cod liver and iron tonic, made without oil.

This combination of two world-famed foods, restores to the blood the elements lacking to make rich, red blood, which imparts strength and vitality to every organ in the body.

Edmund Miller, of New Haven, Conn., says their little girl had been frail and sickly ever since her birth. Vinol was recommended and they tried it, and immediately noticed an improvement in her condition. They continued its use and it built her up, until they cannot recommend it too highly to build up a weakened system." Pariss-Klut Drug Co., Greensboro, N. C.

PILES

"I have suffered with piles for thirty-six years. One year ago last April I began taking Cascarets for constipation. In the course of a week I noticed the piles began to disappear and at the end of six weeks they did not trouble me at all. Cascarets have done wonders for me. I am entirely cured and feel like a new man." George Kryder, Napoleon, O.

HOUSES OF PARLIAMENT.

Wellington's Plan in Favor of the Thames Embankment Site.

Wellington once declared that the most exciting moment of his life was not in any of his great battles, but that in which he had to forbid William IV. to attend a public banquet in the city during a time of great national excitement. Of the millions of people who every year see the English houses of parliament how many imagine that their position was determined by strategic considerations? No one nowadays can think of the palace of Westminster in any other position than that which it occupies. But when the old houses were burned down and the task of rebuilding faced there was a proposition to establish them on or near the site of St. James' palace. Wellington resolutely put down his foot on the proposal.

The site suggested, its advocates pointed out, would be better as regards centrality and convenience than any other. But to the argument of the duke there could then be no answer. "With a vast and growing population, such as yours in London," he said, "you must never make it possible that you can be surrounded. You must build your houses of parliament upon the river, so that the means of ingress and egress are safe and that the populace cannot exact their demands by sitting down around you." Sir William Fraser, in whose memoirs the story is recalled, mentioned it to Napoleon III. just before the death of the latter. "What wisdom!" he said. "What wisdom!" And it set him musing upon the different turn which the history of France might have taken if in other ways as great precautions had been observed in his own case.—St. James' Gazette.

Foley's Kidney Remedy—An Appreciation

L. McConnell, Catherine St., Elmira, N. Y., writes: "I wish to express my appreciation of the great good I derived from Foley's Kidney Remedy, which I used for a bad case of kidney trouble. Five bottles did the work most effectively and proved to me beyond doubt it is the most reliable kidney medicine I have ever taken." Howard Gardner.

Repetition.

"History repeats itself," said the ready-made philosopher. "So does the weather," replied Mr. Lobrow; "but nobody knows what kind is coming next."—Washington Star.

Death in Roaring Fire

How Machinery Breathes.

An English writer on engineering subjects, Mervyn O'Gorman, calls attention to the fact that a piece of machinery, such as an automobile, laid aside after being used in a kind of respiration which affects cylinders, gear boxes, clutch chambers, interspaces in ball bearings, and so forth. Every inclosed air space "breathes" by drawing in air when a fall of temperature contracts its walls and expelling it when the walls expand through heat. The moisture introduced with the air is deposited in the cavities and may produce serious damage through rust. The popular belief that oil will protect the inaccessible parts of unused machinery is fallacious, since nearly all oils take up about 3 per cent of water in solution.

Acts of the Apostles.

The weight of testimony is in favor of St. Luke as the author of the Acts of the Apostles, though some respectable critics claim that the authorship is quite unknown. There are no sure data for determining the date of the Acts. Various dates have been ascribed. Some think that it was written about the year 80, while others hold that it could not have been written before the second century, about A. D. 125.—New York American.

The negro preacher is noted for his enthusiasm and his picturesque, almost poetic, way of expressing things. In "Life in Old Virginia" J. J. McDonald tells about a colored minister who was conducting a revival without much success. At last, however, he awakened his congregation by asking: "Does yo' know what eternity is? Well, I tell yo'."

"If one of dem 'll' sparrows what yo' see round yo' garden bushes was to dip his bill in de 'Lantic ocean an' take one hop a day an' hop 'cross de country an' put dat drop of water into de 'Cific ocean an' den he hop back to de 'Lantic ocean—jes' one hop a day—an' if he keep dat hoppin' up twell de 'Lantic ocean wuz dry as a bone, it wouldn't be break o' day in eternity." "Dar, now," said one of the brethren, "yo' see for yo'sef how long eternity is."
